

YOUR PAGE OF COMICS

BARNEY GOOGLE

Barney Was Game, But It Didn't Do Him Any Good

(By Billy DeBeck)

TOOTS AND CASPER

You Don't Always Need a Calendar to Know What Date It Is

(By J. E. Murphy)

POLLY AND HER PALS

As Long as There's a Check, There's Hope

(By Cliff Sterrett)

THE BICKER FAMILY

Milt Just Won't Give Up

(By Satterfield)

THE DUFFS

Fun in a Two-by-Four Flat

(By Allman)

FRECKLES

Nothing for Tag to Worry About

(By Blosser)

IN THE NEWS

JAPAN'S BOOZE SLEUTH—Japan's prohibition officer surrounded by zealous workers for prohibition. Their banners read, "Prohibit the Sale of Sake." The dist has passed a minor prohibition law.

GREEKS FIND VICTIM OF TURKS—Greek skirmishing force advancing over territory abandoned by fleeing Turks steps beside the body of a Greek captive slain to facilitate the Turkish retreat.

PREPARATION!—Mrs. John Simmons hung an old engraving of President Grant on the porch of her Point Pleasant home in honor of the Grant centenary whose anniversary was celebrated in that town last week.

President and Mrs. Harding received an enthusiastic welcome from Cincinnati, as they rode from the railroad station to the steamboat wharf. In Point Pleasant last Thursday.

Jury picked to try Bill Blizzard, first of West Virginia union miner leaders to face a charge of alleged treason. Left to right, lower row: Sheriff W. O. Macoughtry of Jefferson county, J. M. Garrett, J. W. Wyson, W. W. McAtee, C. F. Daniels; standing on first step, C. M. B. Brown, R. C. Porter; rear, T. S. Hoskett, F. E. Swindley, S. H. Landis, Harry Hendricks, D. B. Shoemaker, W. M. Demory.